Some might just call it puppy love, but more and more people are considering their pets when buying Valentine's Day gifts. With Valentine's Day tomorrow, there's no need to panic about finding that "purrfect" gift to show your furry friends how much you love them.

Consider the next best thing to a home cooked meal, chunky chicken casserole dinner for dogs (or seafood & caviar for the cats) from Evanger's. To keep your pet safe and stylish, consider an IDTAG.com identification tag that allows you to create an online profile for your pet with all their vital medical and contact information - it's like an Amber Alert for your lost pet. And for those playful walks in the park, how about a flexi retractable leash (we own three of these - one for each car and one for his walks).
